"Mr. Wrestler"

He brought us the glory,
He gave us the crown,
"State Wrestling Champions"
He titled our town.

He gave of himself
To give others a start.
He gained the boys trust
And won all their hearts.

He had moments of anguish
And moments of cheers.
By some he was scoffed;
There were others who jeered.

But this will not stop him,
He is too big a man
To become flustered
By an ill spoken fan.

God bless you Coach Douglas,
Continued success
Your fans are behind you,
We know you're the best.

Gerry Stodola

JAMES R. DOUGLAS

(1912-1970)

Last February 15, Coleman lost one of the greatest men it has ever known. Mr. Douglas instituted the wrestling program in Coleman in 1954 and was its head coach until last January. For sixteen long years he drilled, taught, and struggled to put Coleman first on the wrestling map. Coach Douglas and his Cougars established an enviable record of 126 wins, 6 defeats and 2 ties. They also took 5 state championships and placed second twice. Coleman ranks as fifth in the history of Wisconsin prep wrestling with 13 individual state mat champions.

Just as important was Mr. Douglas understanding of school age children who were desperately trying to adjust to the fast pace of today's world. He taught Biology and Chemistry at the High School and was a Guidance Counselor at Coleman Elementary. In 1959 he was named Science teacher of the year in Wisconsin. In the Coleman School district he served as President of the Education Association. He was also President of the Wisconsin Wrestling Coaches Association and a member of the Wisconsin Education Association.

It is hard to say how many people today are a credit to society because Mr. Douglas was willing to teach them respect and help them set a goal for themselves in life.

Mr. Douglas was a wonderful man with a big heart. He was a teacher, coach and gentleman. Although short in stature, he was a big man.

Class Of 1971

Four long tedious years of hard work are finally over. Looking back over these years many of us wonder where they went. When a freshman three years seems like an eternity. When a senior the number of days left until graduation seem like an eternity, but in the end many tears are shed. We may be happy to live but just think of how many of your classmates you may never see again.

In the beginning of our junior year many of us were doubtful of producing even a half-way decent prom. When May 2 came, many students were surprised at how well it did turn out.

Many thanks are extended to Mr. Raymond, our prom advisor who helped to make our prom a success and the other teachers who chaperoned at decorating.

Amidst many good times and even an occasional lecture on our actions, we have learned many things that we will try to carry on in our future careers and lives.

The Junior Class helped spark up the spirit by some enthusiastic backing of our team.

Their back to school dance put them off to a hard start, but they helped to gaily decorate the upper halls and worked laboriously on their float for Homecoming. In preparing for their main event, the Prom, work began early in January.

Mr. Hosking, Mr. Rutten, Mr. Higgins and Mr. Johnson helped through difficulties with sound advice.

The Juniors were busy as usual with their various activities. If something was happening, you could be sure the Juniors were helping with it.

This is the before picture, you should see the after picture.

The Sophomore Class has been doing great so far in their activities. For Homecoming our float, under the title of "Curse You Red Ranger," took second place in the float contest. Since next year is our year to create a prom, the Sophomores are raising money through bake sales. Even though this has been a good year next year is expected to be even better.

With the help of its advisors, the freshman class had a great year. It all started with Homecoming. The theme of their float was "Our Athlete's Foot is Infected with Victory." They also had a skit and mini-float. Their Homecoming representatives were Michelle Elias and Charles Maedke.

With bigger plans in mind for the future, there's no doubt that they are another challenging class of C. H. S.

Homecoming 1970

"The Best Is Yet To Come" was the 1970 Homecoming theme. The week was filled with all kinds of activities including green and white day, Hippie day, and old-fashioned day.

Friday afternoon the band led the school in a parade downtown. The class floats were judged. The Seniors took first place with a float titled "May They Rest in Peace." Second place went to the eighth graders. Their float was titled "The Rangers Forgot Their Wheaties." The Sophomore float titled "Curse You Red Rangers" took third place.

Friday night was the burning of the "Victory V." It was a tough fight, but the Seniors won the Yell contest with the Juniors taking a close second. Donna Boerschinger won the slogan contest.

Saturday afternoon the game was between the Wausaukee Rangers and the Coleman Cougars. The marching band put on a half-time show titled "Welcome Home."

Although we lost the game, there was a fine showing of school spirit.

"ATLANTIS"

"ATLANTIS"

The industrious Class of '71 was successful in their attempt to transform the gym into the under water world of "Atlantis."

Visitors entering this mystic legend scene would see King Neptune keeping watch over the colorful scenery. Looking over to the north wall one would see a pink luxurious clam along with a dilapidated ship. A Roman Coliseum with gigantic white pillars covered the east wall. Gail Shepardson and his Orchestra filled the area with elegant music. The jewel filled treasure chest was planted in the northwest corner surrounded by colorful stalagmites. Couples could quench their thirst by going to the punch table, stationed on the south wall.

The main attraction was a friendly green and white octopus centered in the middle of the floor, where His Majesty, Dan Ryswyk crowned the 1970 Queen, Hollie Woznicki.

The 1970 Royal Court:

FRESHMAN: Darwyn Maedke and Karen Washuleski
SOPHOMORE: Carma Seewald and Tom Berth
JUNIOR: Paul Maedke and Kathy Blagosek
SENIOR: Janice VanDrisse and Jerry Walters

LAUERMANS STORE

is happy to add their good wishes, to those of your friends to all graduating Seniors. Because we've been part of the scene in this area for so many years that we even knew some of your great-grandparents, we're happy to join your other family friends in these sentiments.

The Best of Good Luck
Sincerely

The Les Adieux of 1971 hopes to bring you memories of both the happiness and the hard times of the past year.

A good annual is made up of lots of spare time, hard work, and good pictures. Let's not forget the help and good advice of Mr. Baumgart.

The co-editors would like to thank everyone who helped bring you the 1971 yearbook. And a very special thanks to our advisor, Mr. Baumgart, who had to put up with us.
